In readmess at the armory. Governor Rust is also at the armory to direct matters.

Mitwauker, 11 a. m.—Reports from the southern limits of the city show that small crowds of idle men, numbering some hundreds, are assembled at various points, but it is believed rioting will be averted. Several manufacturing establishments have been visited by committees of strikers and ordered to close down and a number of proprietors have compiled. Different companies of the Fourth battalion are now assembled at their respective armories, ready to move at a midment's notice. Governor Rusk has also ordered the Governor's guards, Madison and Watertown guards, of Wafertown, to the city, and they are now on the way by special train. With these companies added to the local militia force, upon the field, it is believed the crowds of idle men will think better of their inclination to include in riotous proceedings, and that units will soon be restored and not fulge in riotous proceedings, and that quiet will soon be restored and pre-
